

What are your ideas to bring real change to the Liberal Party of Canada?

I've asked LPC President Anna Gainey and your LPC constitutional advisers to lead a working group charged with starting from scratch, and redesigning this party from the ground up for the challenges and opportunities ahead.

Nothing is off the table in this round of constitutional change. And their first order of business is hearing from you, between now and March 15.

Justin Trudeau
Leader of the Liberal Party of Canada

Are you a current member of the Liberal Party of Canada?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Are you planning to attend the Winnipeg 2016 Liberal Biennial Convention as a voting delegate?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Help us understand awareness of the governance mechanisms of the Liberal Party of Canada. Which of the following are you aware of? (Select all that apply)

- ☐ The Liberal Party of Canada Constitution
- ☐ The National Board of Directors
- ☐ The Federal Liberal Agency of Canada
- ☐ Provincial and Territorial Associations, ie. LPC(BC), LPC(Q), LPC (A), LPC(O)
- ☐ Liberal Commissions (Young Liberals, Women, Aboriginal Peoples, Seniors)
- ☐ National Policy and Platform Committee
- ☐ Local Liberal riding associations
- ☐ National Election Readiness Committee

Did you know there are at least 18 constitutions governing the LPC's national operations?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Have you ever consulted any of the following constitutions? (Select all that apply)

- ☐ LPC Constitution
- ☐ A Provincial and Territorial Association Constitution
- ☐ A Commission Constitution
- ☐ An EDA constitution

Do you, as a Liberal supporter, feel close to the leadership of the Party?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Do you support modernizing the Liberal Party of Canada constitution?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Do you think the Liberal Party of Canada should have one constitution like all other major federal parties?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Do you support making membership more open and accessible?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Do you support steps to make the policy development process more innovative and open?

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

What are your ideas for our next constitution? What next steps can be taken to modernize the structure and operations of the Liberal Party of Canada and our movement?

First Name

Last Name

Email

Postal Code

Submit -- Thanks!